HYMN

Comfort, Comfort, Now My PeopleWelsh Melody Wales

"Com-fort, com - fort, now my peo-ple; com-fort, com-fort," says your God.
Shout the news through all of Zi - on that the pro-mised one has come.
Child of Ma - ry, Branch of Jes-se, Da-vid's Son, cre - a - tion's Word,

Tell the dwell-ers of the cit - y that their free-dom has been won.
Spread the joy - ful pro - cla - ma-tion, for God's reign has now be - gun.
An - gel's joy and shep-herd's won-der, gra - cious gift in flesh a - dorned;

Cry a - loud in des - ert plac - es: "Build a high - way for our Lord!"
Might - y rul - er, lov - ing Shep-herd, still you guide with gen - tle hand;
Teach us by your great ex - am - ple: Beth - l'hems man - ger, Cal - v'ry's tree;

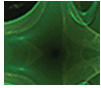

Val - leys lift - ed, moun-tains top-pled, clear a path-way for God's Word.
Now a - mong us, here you lead us, seek - ing lost and wan-d'ring lambs.
Love's a - maz - ing im - pli - ca-tions, love it is that sets us free.

CHOIR ANTHEM

Rich in Promise
 In writing the text for this anthem, poet Susan Palo Cherwien leaned heavily on Hildegard's idea of Veritidas or "greening".

Mark Sedio

Rich in promise, rich in present, dry as dust and desert sand,
 Buried in the potent land, deep and dark the grain lies dormant.
 Behold, God does a new thing, through death God brings new life.

Running river in the desert, water meets the wilderness.
 Transformation, more from less. Swollen seed sends newness skyward.
 Behold, God does a new thing, through death God brings new life.

Parable of grain and greening, paradox of death and birth,
 Story of our wait in earth for the sacramental raining:
 Behold, God does a new thing, through death God brings new life.

So we move from seed to ripeness, so we move from grain to green,
 Letting go of what has been, we embody God's great promise.
 Behold, God does a new thing, through death God brings new life.

 Stanza 2: Organ alone
 Stanza 3: All sing in unison
 Stanza 4: All sing in unison

1. Now the green blade ris - es from the bur - ied grain,
 2. In the grave they laid him, love by ha - tred slain,
 3. Forth he came at Eas - ter like the ris - en grain,
 4. When our hearts are win - try, griev - ing, or in pain, wheat that in dark earth man - y days has lain;

 think - ing that he would nev - er wake a - gain,
 he that for three days in the grave had lain;
 your touch can call us back to life a - gain,

love lives a - gain, that with the dead has been;
 laid in the earth like grain that sleeps un - seen;
 raised from the dead, my liv - ing Lord is seen;
 fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been;

love is come a - gain like wheat a - ris - ing green.

CHOIR ANTHEM

By the Babylonian Rivers

Latvian, arr. Mark Sedio
Latvia

A song of exile based on Psalm 137, paraphrase by Ewald Bash

By the Babylonian rivers we sat down in grief and wept;
Hung our harps upon a willow, mourned for Zion while we slept.
There our captors, in derision, did require of us a song;
So we sat with staring vision and the days were hard and long.
How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange and bitter land?
Can our voices veil the sorrow: Lord God hear your lonely band.
Let your cross be benediction for those bound in tyranny;
By the power of resurrection loose them from captivity. Amen.

ABOUT THE ORGANIST

Mark Sedio is Director of Music/Cantor at Central Lutheran Church in downtown Minneapolis. Prior to his appointment at Central he served as Cantor at Mount Olive Lutheran Church in Minneapolis where he succeeded noted American organist Paul Manz.

He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education from Augsburg College (Minneapolis), a Master of Arts degree in choral conducting and literature from the University of Iowa (Iowa City), and has also studied in the Master of Divinity program at Luther Seminary as well as in the Master of Arts program in Liturgical Studies at St. John's University, Collegeville. From 1985-2008 he served on the music staff of Luther Seminary.

Mark is an active recitalist, clinician, conductor and composer. He has presented hymn festivals and recitals around the United States and Europe. Over 100 of his compositions for choir, organ, piano, solo voice and instrument ensembles are published by AMSI, Augsburg Fortress Publishers, Abingdon Press, Choristers Guild, Concordia Publishing House, MorningStar Music Publishers, and Selah Music Publishers. His hymns and psalm settings have been included in several denominational hymnals and hymnal supplements. Other publications include articles on liturgy and church music, multi-cultural music and worship aids, children in worship, vacation Bible school curricula and multi-cultural music.

A charter member of the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, Mark served on the organization's founding board and was elected its first Director for Ecclesiastical Concerns. He has also held positions in the Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and is active in the American Composers Forum and the Hymn Society of the United States and Canada.
